Note from the Board

We are pleased to announce that the VURJ will publish a volume this spring for the first time since 2016. The VURJ is excited to provide a showcase for all of the excellent work done by our fellow undergraduates.

We encourage the student body to engage with the journal by submitting any work that embodies the spirit of student-driven innovation. This can come in the form of journal articles, essays, reviews, or any other written medium. In addition, since the organization is still in its infancy, we encourage students with a passion for research and collaboration to apply to our review board. Please contact the editor-in-chief or the official email of the journal (vurj@vanderbilt.edu) for more information.

Please stay tuned for more updates from the board, and don't hesitate to reach out with any questions!
